

F2J - Aluminum and PVC

A F2J - Aluminum and PVC, focuses on the production of window frames, facades, railings, aluminum, PVC and iron gates and also performs the installation of blinds and sectional doors, with a view to thermal comfort, visual placidity and physical security.

The activities are developed based on the strong investment in the capacity and motivation of employees and in the careful selection of the options available in the market, aiming at the maximum satisfaction of its customers and interested parties.

The bet on the best solutions for doors, windows and facades with a view to greater energy efficiency, guides the principles of F2J to the wide recognition of the national and international market.

Based on the sustainability of dimensions economic, social and environmental, F2J pursues the best answer to the needs of the customers and partners, based on a innovation policy, entrepreneurship and human dignity.

ECONOMIC SUSTAINABILITY

It is guided by the careful selection of jobs to be performed, articulated with the optimization of resources and efficient productivity. Creative and innovative approaches, flexibility solutions and competitive prices are the premises for dealing with partners.

SOCIAL SUSTAINABILITY

Oriented towards qualification and satisfaction of the human system. Promotes safety conditions in the exercise of their activity when handling their products.

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

Selection of options for your products based on energy and acoustic efficiency. Adequate management of the waste generated, namely through separation for later recycling.